

Subject: KORZHOV, fnu

Source : Prof S.

SECRET

1. Subject told the Source he was an assistant of Prof PATON of Acad Scien, Ukr SSR, Kiev, specializing in arc-welding. He knew about correspondence between Source's brother (Arsen) and Prof Paton. Aged 35-40, 5'665'7, round face, strongly built. Speaks fine Ukrainian but often switches over to Russian.

29 Mar 1964

2. Subject refused to accept "Contemporary Ukrainian Literature in the Ukr SSR" by Koshelivets saying that he was not interested in literature. He even pretended to be offended by Source's suggestion to accept the book and "warned" him that if Prof S. insists on his suggestion they will part as enemies.

3. He knew about Prof Kaldyshev's reform but he did not think it will "pump out brains from Kiev". As far as his department is concerned he rather thinks it is being further developed.

4. To questions about removal of Shcherbytskyi and other political topics, replied that he did not know anything about it because he was not interested in politics.

5. Subject saw no difficulty for students coming from Ukrainian schools at institutes and universities at which many lecturers used Russian.
